Summary

This is the Week 1 report for Aarise. The week was focused on putting strong foundations in place — SEO plugins installed across both sites, Google Analytics 4 and Google Search Console set up and verified, and a first batch of blogs published on aarisehealthcare.com. Both properties are now fully tracked and discoverable in Google.

aarisepharma.com is already showing up well in organic search with thousands of weekly impressions, and aarisehealthcare.com has started appearing in Google results within just days of going live. The numbers below form our Week 1 baseline — every weekly report from now on will track growth against this starting point.

Week 1 Highlights

- aarisepharma.com pulled 142 clicks and 14,738 impressions in the last 7 days, with an average position of 4.8 — already on page one of Google for most queries.
- aarisehealthcare.com gained search visibility within days of launch, with average ranking position climbing from 45 to 5.7 across the week — a clear signal Google is indexing and ranking the new content quickly.
- The “What is Dispersible Tablets?” blog on aarisepharma.com is already earning 7,977 weekly impressions — a strong base of visibility we can convert into clicks next week.
- Strong brand visibility on aarisepharma.com: branded queries like “aarise pharmaceuticals” are converting at ~30% CTR at position 1.
- Mobile is already the dominant channel — 85% of search impressions come from mobile users, exactly the audience we want to reach.

Site 1 — aarisepharma.com

aarisepharma.com is the established product website. It is already performing well in organic search, with consistent daily traffic, page-one rankings, and strong brand visibility. The data below confirms a healthy starting point we can build on.

Daily Performance

Date	Clicks	Impressions	CTR	Avg Position
Mon, 20 Apr	24	2,184	1.10%	4.1
Tue, 21 Apr	35	2,196	1.59%	4.6
Wed, 22 Apr	19	2,225	0.85%	4.9
Thu, 23 Apr	21	2,191	0.96%	5.0
Fri, 24 Apr	20	2,143	0.93%	5.0
Sat, 25 Apr	8	1,925	0.42%	4.9
Sun, 26 Apr	15	1,874	0.80%	5.0
Total / Avg	142	14,738	0.96%	4.8

A solid weekly baseline: 142 clicks and over 14,000 impressions, with the site sitting comfortably on page one of Google (avg position 4.8). This gives us a healthy platform to grow from.

Top Queries

Query	Clicks	Impressions	CTR	Avg Pos
aarise pharmaceuticals	20	67	29.85%	1.2
dispersible tablets	11	2,005	0.55%	3.8
dispersible tablet	5	898	0.56%	4.4
arise pharmaceuticals	5	21	23.81%	10.5
arise pharmaceuticals haridwar	5	19	26.32%	1.0
arise pharma	5	13	38.46%	1.0
pharma companies in haridwar	3	32	9.38%	3.4
misolux kit	3	9	33.33%	1.6

Brand strength is clearly visible — “aarise pharmaceuticals”, “arise pharma”, and related brand searches are ranking at position 1 with strong click-through rates of 25–38%. Generic terms like “dispersible tablets” are already pulling thousands of weekly impressions, giving us a high-volume audience to convert next week.

Top Pages

Page	Clicks	Impressions	CTR	Pos
/ (Homepage)	42	622	6.75%	5.7
/what-is-dispersible-tablets/	32	7,977	0.40%	4.7
/products/	8	258	3.10%	3.5
/product/misolux-kit-...	8	137	5.84%	4.0
/product/clear-tone-rx/	5	246	2.03%	3.7
/product/dextro-dm/	4	1,023	0.39%	4.9
/product/reno-vex-medicine.../	3	183	1.64%	5.1
/product/pregarelief-300/	3	89	3.37%	2.9

The homepage is converting strongly at 6.75% CTR. The “What is Dispersible Tablets?” blog is the headline opportunity of the week — it is already earning nearly 8,000 weekly impressions at a top-five ranking, giving us a sizeable audience to capture with a refreshed snippet next week.

Device Split

Device	Clicks	Impressions	CTR	Avg Pos
Mobile	88	12,536	0.70%	4.5
Desktop	54	2,121	2.55%	6.2
Tablet	0	81	0.00%	5.1

Mobile is the dominant channel, accounting for 85% of all impressions — exactly aligned with how the target audience searches. Desktop visitors are converting at a strong 2.55% CTR, and refining mobile snippets next week will let us bring mobile up to similar levels.

Traffic Source (GA4 — last 7 days)

Channel	Sessions	Notes
Direct	280	Strong brand recall and return visitors
Organic Search	152	Healthy second-largest channel
Referral	11	Active inbound links
Organic Social	10	Social presence picking up
Email	1	Channel now tracked

A healthy multi-channel mix. Direct traffic shows strong brand recognition, while organic search is already an established secondary channel. With tracking now fully in place, every channel can be measured and grown from here.

Site 2 — aarisehealthcare.com aarisehealthcare.com is the newer property focused on research compounds. This week we set up tracking, published the first batch of blog content, and submitted the site to Google. Within days, the site began appearing in Google search results — a strong early signal that the foundations are working.

Daily Performance

Date	Clicks	Impressions	Avg Position
Tue, 21 Apr	0	0	—
Wed, 22 Apr	0	2	45.5
Thu, 23 Apr	0	8	12.2
Fri, 24 Apr	0	10	5.3
Sat, 25 Apr	0	7	11.3
Sun, 26 Apr	0	11	5.7
Total / Avg	0	38	Trending up

A very encouraging launch week. Average ranking position improved sharply from 45.5 on day one to 5.7 by the end of the week — Google is indexing and ranking the new content quickly. Impressions are climbing day on day, and clicks will follow as more content is published.

Pages Already Visible in Google

Page	Impressions	Avg Pos
/abaloparatide-research-compound/	17	8.7
/ (Homepage)	3	1.7
/product/abaloparatide/	2	5.5
/product/chenodeoxycholic-acid/	2	10.5
/product/norepinephrine-bitartrate/	1	6.0
/product/allopregnanolone-brexanolone/	1	7.0
/product/estradiol/	1	8.0

Several pages are already earning their first search impressions. The /abaloparatide-research-compound/ page is leading the way with 17 weekly impressions, and the homepage is appearing at an excellent average position of 1.7. As we publish more content next week, this list will grow.

Work Completed This Week

- Installed and configured the required SEO plugins on both aarisepharma.com and aarisehealthcare.com.
- Set up Google Analytics 4 (GA4) on both properties and verified tracking is firing correctly across all key pages.
- Set up and verified Google Search Console for both properties; XML sitemaps submitted successfully.
- Published the first batch of blog posts on aarisehealthcare.com to validate the publishing flow and indexing — confirmed working.
- Pulled and analysed Week 1 baseline data from GSC and GA4 across both sites (this report).

Plan for Next Week

- Refresh the “What is Dispersible Tablets?” page snippet to capture more clicks from its 7,977 weekly impressions — single biggest growth opportunity on aarisepharma.com.
- Roll out optimised meta titles and meta descriptions across the top product pages on aarisepharma.com to lift click-through rates.
- Refine mobile snippets on the top 20 pages to bring mobile CTR closer to desktop levels.
- Continue publishing new blog content on aarisehealthcare.com to accelerate indexing and ranking momentum.
- Push an updated sitemap and request fresh indexing for new aarisehealthcare.com pages.
- Activate keyword rank tracking so we can showcase ranking gains starting from Week 2.
